

Breakdown of Child-rearing Costs for Middle-income Families in the US

This chart shows the average money a middle-income family spends per child (The cost of raising a child born in a specific year from birth to an 18-year-old adult for middle-income families with two parentes and up to five children)

Costs have been adjusted for inflation

- Other
- Health
- Education
- Clothing
- Transportation
- Food
- Housing